'Marty was a great bloke. He had a weird sense of humor, he was outrageous when he was drunk and stoned and that was most of the time. He was also a spoilt little prick.' This is the story (told by Jacko) of a couple of bachelor blokes sharing a house on the south side of Sydney some time back in the 1990's. Enjoy good Aussie humour as these great mates, Jacko and Marty take you with them on their exploits of misadventures, catastrophes and mishaps. Join these two party animal musicians on their journey and mission to have lots of fun and good times in and around Sydney. Both surviving on a bit of busking and casual work, they got by week to week, but sometimes only just! They played a few gigs at the local pubs, but would fast spend gig fees on guitar strings, P.A. hire, pot and booze. Other means of creating income became a necessity. Come along on a wild trip as these two characters laugh their way through life with a slightly warped sense of humour and a great carefree attitude.
