5 cassettes/5.5 hours

Includes an exclusive interview with the author.

Best-selling author Beverly Donofrio is building a growing following of fans with her honest, moving account of experiences from her own colorful life. Riding in Cars with Boys is her funny and touching account of growing up too fast in the 1960s.

Once her strict family told her she couldn't go to college, Beverly lost interest in everything except smoking, drinking, and rebelling against authority. She was a "bad" girl, and her behavior soon got her into trouble--as in the pregnant kind of trouble. From becoming a teen-aged wife and mother through finally going to college and getting her life back in order, Donofrio faced one challenge after another in her ambivalent efforts to "grow up" as she raised her son.

By turns laugh-out-loud hilarious and poignantly insightful, Riding in Cars with Boys is perfectly served by a bright, smart narration from Christina Moore.

"A classic. Unless you hate to laugh, read it now." --Chicago Tribune

Kliatt praises the narrator's skill: "Moore's narration is flawless. The pace is just right, as are her changes in voice to indicate characters."

Narrator Christina Moore has appeared Off-Broadway and in regional theaters. For many years, she was in the resident acting company of the Arena Stage in Washington, D.C. Moore has narrated more than one hundred Recorded Books audiobooks. Critics consistently praise her ability to convey a book's distinctive emotional tone. AudioFile raves, "Master storyteller Christina Moore gives voice to every emotion and to each character."
