On the day of Pentecost, recorded in Acts 2, the Holy Spirit, “the Spirit of truth,” fulfilled Jesus’ words by bursting on the scene with a mighty wind and fire. The Church was formed, and Jesus’ followers were catalyzed to blaze a worldwide movement proclaiming the good news of God’s salvation offered to all people. Through Jesus, we have that same catalyzing Spirit as our constant companion. This is a promise that will never be broken. Every day the Spirit sustains us, corrects us, lifts us, teaches us, gives us joy and enables us to live in the light rather than darkness. If we seem to lose our way, it is the Spirit that guides, comforts, heals, defends and shows us the path again. In The Promised Journey, Marty Bullis has written 50 reflections on the Holy Spirit, built around key Scripture passages from both the Old and New Testaments. Each day’s reading will not only hone your understanding of the Spirit’s work but will also ignite in you an ever-increasing desire to blaze with a “God-fired life.”
