Birdie doesn't know why anybody like Penny would choose him on the dating site. Birdie is boring. Birdie is broken. He teaches history, he collects tarot decks, he bakes cakes, and his tries not to think about the divorce.

He isn't the man of her dreams. But he is better than going home. Better than the old house full of secrets and shadows.

Better than the troubles that don't want to let her go.

Birdie is about to be dealt a hand of cards he can't escape.
