No Good Deeds Joseph Dinan

"No Good Deeds" is the tale of a man that goes out of his way to help a total stranger and ends up paying an incredible price, one which he hadn't bargained for. Now a vampire in a modern world, he is forced to learn how to survive. He must choose between the attachments of his former life and the desires his new one has to offer. But at what cost? Sacrifices must be made for the greater good. Does he choose love, passion, and self-preservation? Or does he do what is necessary to save the entire world? "No Good Deeds" is a story about selflessness. It's about hope and most importantly it's a story about acceptance and tolerance. The greatest gift we can offer ourselves is to seek to understand and then accept the answers given.
