Accounts vary on the earliest use of stained glass mainly because it was invented before recorded history. Some historians claim it was first used as a domestic luxury in the homes of wealthy Romans in the first century. Stained glass eventually gained recognition as an art form sometime in the fourth century as Christians began to worship openly and built elaborate churches to celebrate their religion. Perhaps you would like to create these wonderful works of art yourself, or maybe you're not sure what and how to buy them.

In this world-class ebook learn everything you need to know about how to buy stained glass, how to use stained glass as a decoration, designing your own stained glass and much more.
