The Book, The Mary Jane Diaries is about Karan Sharma, a regular school going teenager who finds new paths leaving him quite astray after topping his board examinations and entering senior high school. His father wants him to go to a premier engineering institute, but he would rather be a chef. Peer pressure, relationships and family drama start having a greater impact in his life, barring him from discovering his hidden potential. The society having old and rigid beliefs always seem to be looking down at him and boom! He discovers sweet Mary Jane which is a real life changer for him, creating added problems and increased social and personal avenues as well. This book is about how a thing that is deemed illegal and bad by the society helps him come out from different traumas and tight places in life. Even when his parents, relatives and love are all against him, how an illegal drug gives him the urge to live on and fight mental and physical battles. Is it necessary that something that isn't legal is Bad for sure? Flip the cover to find out..
