Griffith Tavern (Taryn's Camera) (Volume 2) Rebecca Patrick-Howard

Griffith Tavern is empty, but there's something alive within the crumbling walls and it's been waiting for Taryn for nearly 100 years...

When the Friends of Griffith Tavern hire Taryn to come in and do one last painting before it's demolished, she assumes it will be a quick, easy job. She's in desperate need of cash flow and the quaint town and lovely hostess of the B&B she's staying in appear to be a perfect balm to her injured spirit.

But something is watching Taryn, and waiting...Something that slithers in the dark and clutches at her, even invading her dreams. Who is the woman that haunts the grounds and what does she want from Taryn?

Still mourning the death of her husband, and reeling from the events at Windwood Farm, Taryn struggles to piece together the fragments of the mystery that shroud the old tavern.

It might be too late to save the old building, but is it too late to save Taryn?

The Taryn's Camera series features Taryn Magill, a 30-year-old multi-media artist who sees the past when she looks through her camera. This is Book 2 in the series.
