In the wake of her best friend, Macie's, death, Finn arrives in Nisswa, Minnesota, hoping to escape her grief by spending the summer at her grandparents' restaurant. Alone for the first time, she must navigate around her own lingering devastation and Macie's ex-boyfriend, who has unknowingly gotten a job at the same restaurant. As she begins to form relationships and put down roots in Nisswa, Finn must choose between her loyalty to her dead best friend and allowing herself to forgive and to move on.
