Are you confused or terrified about suffering?

Are you or your loved ones in physical or emotional pain now?

Are you wondering if God is out to get you? Wondering if he is punishing you?

If God is loving and just, why does he allow his creatures to suffer pain?

When suffering touches our lives, questions like these suddenly demand an answer.

The question of why there is pain and suffering in the world has tormented every generation; When we're walking through pain and suffering, we want life to make sense.

When this author was younger she felt confused about suffering. A friend gave her a book that only confused her more. In When Bad Things Happen to Good People Rabbi Harold S. Kushner wrote of how God is powerless to do anything to help anyone. Though still confused, the author believed God was more powerful than that.

Fast forward 25 years . . .

As a Licensed Professional Counselor, Lucille Zimmerman has spent years counseling clients as they walk through pain and suffering. She has spent decades in Bible studies learning what the God has to say about suffering. She is passionate about helping people understand the purpose of pain and suffering.

Through personal anecdotes and biblical application you will learn that God is good. You will learn that God can be trusted, and you will come to understand that suffering makes sense in God's economy.

Pick up your copy of What Does God Say about Suffering? and find answers to your questions. Discover peace in troubled times.
