This sidekick to Lee Goldberg and Janet Evanovich's exciting adventure, The Chase, breaks down the bizarre protagonist pairing and shows you why it works. Nicolas Fox is one of the world's best con men. The only person to catch him? Agent Kate O'Hare. They team up to go deep into the underground world of crime to catch those who claim to be "untouchable." The first target is a former Chief of Staff at the White House: Carter Grove. Use this sidekick as your literal "guide" to understanding the many dynamics occurring in the novel. Grove's crime in The Chase was stealing a Chinese artifact. If the crime goes public, relations with China could disintegrate. Kate and Nick must use their skills to recover it, but it doesn't seem like a fair fight. Grove has trained assassins, while Kate and Nick have a crew led by a nerd, an actor, and a bunch of old guys, including her dad. In The Chase, the pursuit takes all those involved for a roller-coaster ride around the globe. Does Grove have what it takes to outsmart what could be the most dynamic duo ever formed? This sidekick discusses the main themes of the novel, which are wealth and power, two things that Grove has far too much of already.
