Whistler's Cove is about to play host to a grand society wedding, the coming together of Vince Taylor and Francine Frazer. But when a visitor to the little town is murdered, all signs point to the groom being guilty, and he's arrested just days before the spectacular event.

The trouble is, the owner of the local teahouse- Misty Williams- had a lot riding on that wedding, and now she stands to lose both her business and her boyfriend if it doesn't go ahead. So Misty must turn amateur sleuth to prove her hunch that the groom is innocent, and free him from prison to make sure the wedding takes place.

This humorous cozy mystery can be read as part of the Whistler's Cove series or as a stand-alone story. All the town's most popular characters are involved again: Miss Mabel- that shy teahouse cat, Martha Johnstone- gossip extraordinaire, the amusing old men who spend their days playing checkers, and all the artists and crafters who make up Whistler's Cove's vibrant community.

So come on in and enjoy the fun!
