They say money makes money, but we say people make money. There is a simple fact that people that know how to make money often think alike, they often identify opportunities and know how to act when positioned for success. This success is attributed to the Mindset they share and their ability to unlock their full potential. Today we share with you in detail how you can choose a similar fate of success by understanding your full potential and becoming the driver of your life. Many of you have read all the amazing success stories we feature by now and understand how they have been able to create an idea and see it come to life from nothing. Our circumstance is no different than anyone else's; we are not born into money and are not given opportunities that only a select few receive. We start like 90% of today's society, but choose where we end up. We CHOSE SUCCESS, aligned our goals and life to it and became the driver of our lives taking ourselves into the world we once saw as a dream or believed we deserved. You too have that same opportunity but now no longer have to go through all the trials and errors to attain the knowledge. This book is not going to tell you to find investors, spend money, or even go buy real estate. This book is going to change the way you look at everything around you, it will give you an opportunity to identify and act on opportunities but more importantly teach you how to be fearless in your quest for success. Staying Poor is a choice but Stay Poor will show you that Success and Wealth is more about MINDSET than anything else. More importantly it will give you the missing key to your success and will actually ask you to do something about it, because ideas are nothing more than ideas without EXECUTION.
