The Long Road Home (The Motorcycle Chronicles) (Volume 3) Roan Poulter

The Long Road Home, the final chapter in the Motorcycle Chronicles, tells the story of a young man's search for closure. Jordan Carter's mother was more than famous, she was a literary icon. Her death leaves him alone in the world and feeling diminished. When he meets Siena, he thinks he may have stumbled upon the love of a lifetime. But when larger questions of Siena's past and Jordan's unfinished task of scattering his mother's ashes separate them, can they endure the length of road that divides them? As the miles roll on, Jordan is forced to face the reality of who his mother was and discover the man he will become.
