LIVING BEYOND THE THOUGHT OF SELF REDEMPTION. When she had fallen in love, she was looking at the bright future more inspired by her marriage not knowing it was the worst possible nightmare. It was another tale of untold sufferings in her marriage to a manipulative, obsessive and abusive husband. The graveyard become her true friend, it was in the graveyard that she found her partial freedom, peace and love. With her undying love and care for the graves, her resilience paid back one day when she came across one tomb stone miraculously inscribed with these words “let your wish be at my command”. To which she was reluctant at first but in the end she concluded and said “please let my looks be at my commands”. And all came perfectly to her wish.

She could manipulate her looks to the best of her imaginations and they come with magic touch to liberating her from the untold sufferings. In taking her pain away she would come back to haunt her unsuspecting husband, who is humorously taken round circles of heaven before hell broke lose. As for the husband not sure if he was a victim of luck after luck or falling angels, he would bluntly lie of how his wife died in a tragic accident just to milk maximum sympathy to win her love and affection. She would come in with a killer looks not to tempt her husband and later accuse him of infidelity but to inflict maximum punishment with her worst possible looks that she had christened confessor, voila and unbreakable. Despite that she was not led by desires for self-glorification and self-gratification. Walking under the banner of seeker of the peace, custodian of the truth and believer of justice to liberate many who had fallen prey to that path which was not self-sustaining. It is told in the second person narrative and interchanged to direct conversion between the characters and various sermons.

Excerpt, The sermons of the Seer, “We have never been okay, that why we are all dreaming of a better future, the afterlife and the everlasting heaven, even when our chances of getting there are getting slim day in day out. We have never been okay, we have only been compromised by circumstances. Your wife could be telling you, “Honey I am okay with this and that, it’s okay”, you hate been compromised with debts and as a payback you will smitten her with all petty for nothing compliments. You will tell her how you are okay with everything about her, because of fear for saying contrary and repercussion of dispensing the truth.

Adam sin was aided by desire to be different for he was no okay, with time that haven’t changed. We still don’t have the best dreams that why we are still dreaming each day of our life. We still don’t have the best information to come to a logical conclusion in regards to our own fate that why we are still seeking the truth. Even the body is not okay with it nature that why it keeps on changing, the sun is not okay it still positioning itself, as for the planet rest is unheard off and they are all still in search of meaning of this life. The moon is never okay still trying different faces without any giving her satisfaction. Even for Christians, Christ not okay he want Christians back to the righteous path, the devil is not okay either and want to maximize on his catch.

On earth the end of the path called absolute okay is next to infinity, every satisfaction comes with a vacuum. You are not okay with specific “something” about her or the situations you are in with her. For some reasons your dreams haven’t yet come truth, against this set back you are not able to provide so and so to her, you are not able to do this and that with her, many dreams remains locked you haven’t yet unlocked them. You have never been okay with the situation you are currently in, you only try’s to get the best out of it. Man can never be okay more especially when he doesn’t know his absolute fate. Man will be absolute okay the day he will unlock and live his last dream” concluded the Holy Seer.
