Good Housekeeping's "Book of Cookies" is a little book that contains lots and lots of cookie recipes of all different varieties. Just from a rough count of the index, I estimate that there are more than 150 recipes in its 60-plus pages (including all the variations of various key recipes). The cookies are grouped by categories, which include molded cookies, filled cookies, drop and bake cookies, refrigerator cookies, pressed cookies, bars and squares, roll-and-cut cookies, packaged-mix cookies, cookies-in-a-hurry, and no-bake cookies, as well as a section on frostings and glazes. In addition, there is information on storing, freezing, and mailing cookies, and also on decorating petit-fours.
