Just days before Christmas, Cheyenne Stevens flees to Las Vegas to escape the heartbreak of a failing marriage. While there, she meets a ruthless cowboy, Rowdy Harrison from Freedom, Oklahoma. She accepts an invitation to visit Rowdy in Freedom. Their love affair quickly blooms into a business relationship when Cheyenne buys into Rowdy's bucking bull business. Initially she believes living life on a ranch with a cowboy will take her back in time to a childhood place where she had once been her happiest. But the elements and the daily struggles of life in the country take a toll on Cheyenne. Her escape to Freedom becomes far more than she bargained for. In time she realizes that Freedom doesn't come free. Though she gives it her all, it's never enough. Being used to a life of luxury, she tries to improve her surroundings only to be taken advantage of over and over again. Farewell to Freedom is an award winning novel. This second edition is an improved version of the story. It's a modern day western romance. Although the cowboy and the socialite are different, they initially seem to be in love. Their love thrives on their differences. As time goes by Cheyenne opens her eyes. She sees that she's being taken for a ride. Hoping to recover her huge financial losses, she's forced to wait for the right time to leave. Rowdy's true colors show when his drinking becomes a major problem in the relationship. Cheyenne fears for her life. Her life in Northwest Oklahoma is a continuous struggle, but Cheyenne's no quitter. Cheyenne is a fighter. She keeps moving forward. She moves to Freedom seeking love and happiness, but everything soon goes to hell. This is a story of survival. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Farewell to Freedom is Anita Waggoner's first novel.
