The Dark Side of Law Enforcement: A Personal Journey Through the Ranks Arthur J Washington
Arthur J. Washington knows what it takes to overcome personal and professional obstacles. Having spent numerous years in the field of law enforcement and advancing through the ranks to the ultimate position as Chief of Police, his perseverance and success will inspire others to attain their goals and succeed in life. The Dark Side of Law Enforcement chronicles Arthur's rise from a small town boy to the highest position in a police agency - Chief of Police. Surviving the years proved challenging and demanding, especially for blacks. In spite of the trials and tribulations, Arthur J. Washington endured the setbacks and continued to work hard to achieve his goals. This book is a valuable resource for representatives of law enforcement. The author touches on the inner workings of law enforcement and its responsibilities in the crime fighting effort. He has a strong belief in developing and maintaining a positive community partnership. The Dark Side of Law Enforcement will enlighten laymen and non-police personnel of the role of law enforcement and increase an understanding between both entities.
