Who really belongs in Cooperstown? This book is the first complete source for anybody interested in evaluating players for the Hall of Fame. A combination of career production, peak seasons production and positional dominance is used to rate every eligible player for the Baseball Hall of Fame. Commentaries on over 500 players are provided. Not only are gambling and steroids discussed in depth, but the reason why 19th Century and Dead Ball Era players are underrepresented in Cooperstown is revealed. Tables ranking every player by hitters, starting pitchers, and relievers for the Hall of Fame are included.
