In essence the commentators agree that the (work) means that the welfare of all forms of obedience to God. But what kind of devotion is said (do) in this verse? The interpreters have different opinions. (Do good) in this verse is the faith of the Prophet Muhammad s.a.w, in his religion and its teachings. Meanwhile, according to Ibn Juraij is prayer and fasting. Now according to Al-Saddi is obedient to Allah. According to Qatadah is to practice doing good deeds.

Although the interpreters have different opinions on the meaning of words (do good) in this verse, according to At-Tabari, all agree that this verse is the criticism for the nation (Israel) and people everywhere, including Muslims who encourage others to follow the words and actions that blessed by Allah, but they forget themselves. Therefore according to Ibn Juraij is proper for the callers to practice the good in advance themselves.
